A "wealthy" crowd frequents this "elegant" Studio City respite where the "gorgeous" "gardenlike" setting with 30-ft. ceilings, "white twinkle lights" and a baby grand piano make it "wonderful for a special occasion", whether a "business lunch" or an "intimate dinner"; "attentive" waiters and a "lovely" menu of Continental cuisine, including "heavenly soufflés" and signature chicken curry, also win raves, so even though some snipe "it's getting by on reputation", many return to "relax" and "enjoy the ambiance."
